Leisure

The area offers varied scenery from natural, architectural and industrial heritage. From the Opal Coast, bordered by sand dunes and cliffs, to the green plains and the hills dotted with villages and rivers, the area proudly shows off its medieval and modern belfries, its old churches, its splendid squares, its fortifications and its Flemish houses.

To visit :

- World Heritage Belfries: on the 16th July 2005, UNESCO declared that the 23 belfries in the North Nord – Pas de Calais and in the Somme became World Heritage sites.
- The museums in the North : more than forty museums dedicated to fine-arts, industry, natural history, local or archaeological history await your visit. The Louvre-Lens is a new member of this rich cultural network.

Recommended places

Did you know that the Nord-Pas-de-Calais is the 5th largest producer of vegetables in France: potatoes of course but also chicory (the region is number 1 in the world), salads: chicory, dandelion, fruit

Local specialties: Carbonades flamandes, Hochebots, Potjevlesch, anguilles au vert, craquelots, fish waterzoï, Escavêche, rabbit with prunes, coq à la bière, flamiche au maroilles, leek tart, chicory, garlic soup...

Our partners :

- L'acardie II : Pleasure of dishes, tastes, a subtle blend of aroma, the gastronomy of Arcadie II is the expression of imagination in harmony.
- La Pataterie de Lens honours the potatoe and you will discover a generous cuisine inspired both from French regional specialities and elsewhere.
